Meditation for Worship

My voice rises to God, and I will cry aloud; my voice rises to God, and He will hear me.

(Ps. 77:1)

"Above all, let us give thanks to the Master of all for having called us into His marvelous light."

Clement of Rome (early Bishop of Rome)

*Call to Worship

In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge;

Let me never be ashamed.

In Your righteousness deliver me and rescue me;

Incline Your ear to me and save me.

Be to me a rock of habitation to which I may continually come;

You have given commandment to save me, for You are my rock and my fortress.

Ps. 71:1-3

Public Confession

*Heavenly Father, we affirm that Christ gave Himself for our sins.
For His sake, therefore, we ask that You pardon our words spoken in haste or anger. Forgive our acts of selfishness. Glorify our King and Redeemer as You continue to sanctify us by Your grace.*

Words of Assurance

Rom. 8:33, 34

Who will bring a charge against God's elect? God is the one who justifies; who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us.

Response

50 Q. Why the next words: "and sits at the right hand of God"?

A. Christ ascended to heaven, there to show that he is head of his church, the one through whom the Father governs all things.

51 Q. How does this glory of Christ our head benefit us?

A. First, through his Holy Spirit he pours out gifts from heaven upon us his members.

Second, by his power he defends us and preserves us from all enemies.

52 Q. How does Christ's return "to judge the living and the dead" comfort you?

A. In all distress and persecution, with uplifted head, I confidently await the very judge who has already offered himself to the judgment of God in my place and removed the whole curse from me. Christ will cast all his enemies and mine into everlasting condemnation, but will take me and all his chosen ones to himself into the joy and glory of heaven.

Christian Contentment

“If I become content by having my desire satisfied, that is only self-love; but when I am contented with the hand of God and am willing to be at His disposal, that comes from my love to God.”

The Use of Wine in the Observance of the Lord’s Supper

In light of the biblical account of the Last Supper and Jesus’ use of wine in representing His blood, All Saints Parish Church believes that the use of wine in the observance of the Lord’s Supper remains the proper symbol for representing His blood. We do, however, make occasional exceptions for the use of grape juice, with the hope that those holding such an exception will seek to understand the conviction of the church in this matter. Please speak to one of the elders if you wish to discuss this issue.
