Meditation for Worship

"Many plans are in a man's heart, but the counsel of the LORD will stand."
(Prov. 19:21)

"A godless world is a lawless world. Anarchy comes in when the fear of God goes out."

Charles Spurgeon

*Call to Worship

The LORD is gracious and merciful;
Slow to anger and great in lovingkindness.
The LORD is good to all,
And His mercies are over all His works.
All Your works shall give thanks to You, O LORD,
And Your godly ones shall bless You.

Ps. 145:8-10

Public Confession

Heavenly Father, in this life we are troubled with frequent temptation, and we long to be free from sin's burden. Please forgive our many transgressions for the sake of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Fill us with gladness as we consider His work on our behalf and anticipate the day when we will be free from all that is unholy.

Words of Assurance

The LORD is exalted, for He dwells on high; He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness. And He will be the stability of your times, a wealth of salvation, wisdom and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

Isa. 33:5, 6

*Responsive Reading: The Heidelberg Catechism

83 Q. What are the keys of the kingdom?

A. The preaching of the holy gospel and Christian discipline toward repentance.

Both of them open the kingdom of heaven to believers and close it to unbelievers.

84 Q. How does preaching the holy gospel open and close the kingdom of heaven?

A. According to the command of Christ: The kingdom of heaven is opened by proclaiming and publicly declaring to all believers, each and every one, that, as often as they accept the gospel promise in true faith, God, because of Christ's merit, truly forgives all their sins.

The kingdom of heaven is closed, however, by proclaiming and publicly declaring to unbelievers and hypocrites that, as long as they do not repent, the wrath of God and eternal condemnation rest on them.

God's judgment, both in this life and in the life to come, is based on this gospel testimony.

The Use of Wine in the Observance of the Lord's Supper

In light of the biblical account of the Last Supper and Jesus' use of wine in representing His blood, All Saints Parish Church believes that the use of wine in the observance of the Lord's Supper remains the proper symbol for representing His blood. We do, however, make occasional exceptions for the use of grape juice, with the hope that those holding such an exception will seek to understand the conviction of the church in this matter. Please speak to one of the elders if you wish to discuss this issue.
