Please maintain contemplative silence during the prelude.

Meditation for Worship

"The fear of the LORD is to hate evil;
Pride and arrogance and the evil way
And the perverted mouth, I hate."
(Prov. 8:13)

"Christ is hated because sin is loved."

Matthew Henry

Call to Worship Ps. 40:1–3

I waited patiently for the LORD;
And He inclined to me and heard my cry.
He brought me up out of the pit of destruction, out of the miry clay,
And He set my feet upon a rock making my footsteps firm.
He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God;
Many will see and fear and will trust in the LORD.

Public Confession

O God of all grace, look with mercy on Your people. Remember that we are but dust; remember Your holy covenant and save us from our sin. We confess that we have not walked rightly before You; we have yielded to temptation. Forgive us and grant us assurance of our standing in Christ. For Your glory, keep us from sin in the days to come.

Words of Assurance John 1:11–13

He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God.

Responsive Reading: The Heidelberg Catechism

105 Q. What is God's will for you in the sixth commandment?
A. I am not to belittle, hate, insult or kill my neighbor—not by my thoughts, my words, my look or gesture, and certainly not by actual deeds—and I am not to be party to this in others; rather, I am to put away all desire for revenge. I am not to harm or recklessly endanger myself either.
Prevention of murder is also why government is armed with the sword.

106 Q. Does this commandment refer only to murder?
A. By forbidding murder God teaches us that he hates the root of murder: envy, hatred, anger, vengefulness. In God's sight all such are disguised forms of murder.

107 Q. Is it enough then that we do not murder our neighbor in any such way?
A. No. By condemning envy, hatred, and anger God wants us to love our neighbors as ourselves, to be patient, peace-loving, gentle, merciful, and friendly toward them, to protect them from harm as much as we can, and to do good even to our enemies.

The Sweetness of Christ

"Till sin be bitter, Christ will not be sweet."

The Use of Wine in the Observance of the Lord's Supper

In light of the biblical account of the Last Supper and Jesus' use of wine in representing His blood, All Saints Parish Church believes that the use of wine in the observance of the Lord's Supper remains the proper symbol for representing His blood. We do, however, make occasional exceptions for the use of grape juice, with the hope that those holding such an exception will seek to understand the conviction of the church in this matter. Please speak to one of the elders if you wish to discuss this issue.
